Headteacher's Headlines – 8th March 2024

- We know you've missed our weekly newsletter, so we have worked hard to bring it back to you on what has been a busy week in school. There's been World Book Day, A multi skills visit, a National Archives virtual visit, cooking club, football club and lots more!
- We know reading is the key to unlocking the curriculum and this starts with a love for reading. This year's World Book Day showed how much Yanwath children love their reading. The costumes were incredible, children lit up talking about their favourite stories and authors, our extreme reading competition reached new levels and our partnership with Eden Bookworms saw 28 books donated to our school libraries – well done Yanwath!
- We have also been looking through all the survey results – thank you to those families who took the time to complete this. We will be actioning next steps where possible and will be sharing a 'You Said, We Did' letter in the next week.
- Attendance this week was 97.1% - lets push for 100% next week!

Wonderful World Book Day 2024

This year for World Book Day we encouraged our pupils to dress up as a book related character and the teachers all read a story to a different class! Here are a few snaps but you can check out more on our social media.
